

Dear Joan,

6/20/01

My apologies! This and some other mail had something laid over them and were promptly forgotten. I am sorry. you 5/2

Andrews told me that Shaw was Bertzand without putting it that way. What We were in his office discussing some of the evidence, I now do not recall, when Andrew said, approximately these words, "If the Green Giant gets past that, he is home clear."

I also do not recall Dean's fears. He was always pleasant with me. He once invited me to go with him to a jazz session. I do not recall his instrument. He said, approximately, that "There is a hot cat coming down from Cincinnati" and the rest was a bit more on that. I had an appointment for that night and didn't go and have regreted that since then. New Orleans 1972 jazz was my favorite popular music.

You refer to Garrison and Andrews meeting at Broussard's. If I knew about that I've forgotten it, but what I am clear ~~on~~ on is Andrews telling me that Garrison came into his office threw a copy of Whitewash on his desk and told him he should read it. But that was after October 1966. I am pretty sure Dean said November and I assumed it was a copy of the Bell reprint.

I hope you can get down down ~~seen~~ and that if you have any questions you can ask them then.

Please forgive this negligence and accept my apology and best wishes.

Harold
